Case 2:11-cv-06348-TJS Document 1-1 Filed 10/11/11 Page 4 of 50
4. The Plaintiff and the Defendant had a professional relationship, along with Plaintiff's now estranged wife Alla Burda, at one time in 2010 as the result of Plaintiff's marital situation.
 5. The jurisdiction of this matter is proper and convenient in this Court is because the incident's events, acts and resulting damages complained herein occurred in and within Montgomery County, Pennsylvania.
 6. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Plaintiff and/or Defendant.
 7. The Defendant testified as a "witness" who was brought in to Montgomery County Court, and financially compensated by Alla Burda, Plaintiff's estranged wife, in a matter relating to custody of couple's child, in which proceedings were commenced by Steven Burda on March 30, 2010.
 8. Full and certified transcripts from the Court exist for this date of May 11, 2011.
 9. Subject matter (such as defamation of character and other counts within this complaint) jurisdiction and venue are appropriate in this Court.
 10. The claims stem primarily from the event that occurred and otherwise unfolded on Wednesday, May 11, 2011, and directly and indirectly continue to unfold to the very present.
 11. Plaintiff asserts that Defendant's defamatory actions, perilous behaviors, unproven testimony, improper and unlawful attacks has caused and are presently causing significant harm and injury to Plaintiff's character, his reputation, and that has resulted in personal family and financial loss, amongst other adverse affects for the Plaintiff, and directly attributed to the Defendant.
 12. Plaintiff further believes that Defendant may continue to act, or otherwise participate or be part of a strategy to cause additional harm to the Plaintiff or his child(ren) in the future.

COUNT (I) : DEFAMATION AND FALSE LIGHT

13. Plaintiff asserts that Defendant, Robin B. Metcalf, intentionally and without regard has defamed both through libel and slander Mr. Burda's character, personal and professional reputation and good name.
14. Plaintiff asserts that Defendant publicly proclaimed, through her testimony under Oath, on May 11, 2011 in Montgomery County Court of Common Pleas, Pennsylvania on a Custody matter that Mr. Burda, inter alia, "can be a badger a person." Then Ms. Metcalf went on to say, "And many times he [Steven] would badger Alla regarding moving or living with him or visitation or just any and all issues around the marriage and the children." (pg. 187-188 of seq. 2010-26928-

- 195) and is attached as Exhibit A, and then again, "...he [Steven] began to badger Alla." . ." (pg. 192 of seq. 2010-26928-195)
15. Plaintiff believes that the word "badger" was used multiple times, deliberately and with malice, to inflict as much harm and injury as possible, both on the record, for the Judge to hear and take judicial note of, as well as for the family members, friends, neighbors, colleagues and other members of the public audience who had never seen or experienced Mr. Burda as a "badger" before in their own relationship capacity with Plaintiff over years and decades of interactions.
16. Neither specific or concrete examples, incidents nor scenarios were ever presented, given, written or oral, to support the unnecessary use of the word "badger" multiple times in the description of Mr. Burda's character.
17. Apparently, this seems to be based solely on Mrs. Alla Burda's opinions or unilaterally separate conversations and individual sessions, as many as 23 of them with Ms. Metcalf and Mrs. Burda, which ironically, was never mentioned or discussed during the testimony and unknown to any of the present individuals, at that time.
18. Further, to add more insult to the injury, Ms. Metcalf answered with "I think a potential could be there." in answering a question from Steven's family law attorney, which was "Did you have any concerns with regards to domestic abuse?" (pg. 200 of seq. 2010-26928-195, Exhibit A) where previously, on the record under Oath, the family law attorney's asked: "Was there any discussion with regards to domestic violence; any physical abuse?" the answer Ms. Metcalf gave was "No." (pg. 199-200 of seq. 2010-26928-195). When family law attorney's question was to Ms. Metcalf: "you have no proof or evidence that there was ever any time of abuse?" the reply was "No." (pg. 200 of seq. 2010-26928-195).
19. Plaintiff is steadfast that his demeanor and interactions at the marriage counseling sessions were rational, calm and respectful to both the estranged wife and Ms. Metcalf, and allegation of "badgering" were completely untrue and no supportive documents or examples ever exist to support such strong word usage. Mr. Burda will rigorously defend his reputation at the time of the hearing.
20. As the result of Defendant's unsupported testimony, Mr. Burda continues to be under continuous scrutiny and distrust, was placed into a position of false light and his relationship with the Judge, in legal custody capacity, as well as the personal and professional relationship with the family members, friends, neighbors, colleagues and other members of the public audience is irrefutably and wrongfully changed, in negative aspect.

21. Plaintiff believes that Defendant made other numerous "lies" and "omissions," misleading statements and knowingly made false arguments with the intent (or to the effect) of undermining Plaintiff's credibility by attacking his character and reputation.
22. The substantially false and malicious statements made by the Defendant had the effect of defaming Plaintiff's character and wrongly undermining Plaintiff's previous statements and credibility.
23. Plaintiff asserts that Defendant made public statements and/or committed acts that resulted in defamation of character, and caused direct and indirect harm and injury to Plaintiff, resulting in damages.
24. Plaintiff believes that Defendant's statements, in part or whole, called into question Mr. Burda's honesty, integrity, professional competence, sanity, solvency, morality and/or social refinement.
25. Plaintiff asserts that Defendant acted with an "evil mind" as defined in the law relating to punitive damages, and with reckless disregard for the rights to the Plaintiff.
26. Additionally, the Plaintiff reserves the right to add supplemental and/or material information, evidence, and/or other facts in subsequent pleadings, prior to or at the hearing/trial which was not mentioned in this Count of the Complaint.

(II) INTENTIONAL AND NEGLIGENT INFILCTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

27. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference each and every allegation of above paragraphs as through set forth in full herein verbatim.
28. Plaintiff asserts that Defendant, Robin B. Metcalf, repeatedly and over a period of time, engaged in intentional conduct that was outrageous; which was considered beyond the bounds of decency by any reasonable person, and by many of the Mr. Burda's family members, friends, neighbors, colleagues and other public individual who witnessed it.
29. Plaintiff asserts that Defendant was aware that her actions and repeated use of the word "badger," among other false statements, would result in causing emotional distress for the Plaintiff and his family. (For example, the Judge specifically referenced Ms. Metcalf's use of the word "badger" or "badgering" in her decision of not awarding custody to Mr. Burda).
30. Defendant was aware that she had other options than to cause the Plaintiff emotional distress.

8/8/12/2011 Metcalf.com

31. Plaintiff asserts that Defendant had the intention of causing (or had a reckless disregard of the probability of causing) emotional distress to the Plaintiff, and acted with conscious failure to avoid injury.
32. Plaintiff did suffer severe emotional distress as the result, where Ms. Metcalf, given the litigious nature of the custody and divorce action the couple is going through, owed a legal duty to use ordinary care to prevent injury to the Plaintiff, yet the Defendant deliberately breached that duty, intentionally and with reckless disregard for the probability that severe injury would result as a result of her unethical conduct and defamatory statements.
33. Plaintiff asserts that Defendant made statements and/or committed acts that resulted in intentional infliction of emotional distress and caused harm and injury to Plaintiff resulting in damages.
34. Plaintiff was unnecessarily forced to endure pain, shock, humiliation, and feeling of disconcert, exposure and desperation, and suffered financial damages in amount to be proven at trial.
35. Plaintiff asserts that Defendant acted maliciously with an "evil mind" as defined in the law relating to punitive damages, and with reckless disregard for the rights to the Plaintiff.
36. An award of compensatory and punitive damages in a sum according to proof at trial is justified, warranted and appropriate.
37. Additionally, the Plaintiff reserves the right to add supplemental and/or material information, evidence, and/or other facts in subsequent pleadings, prior to or at the hearing/trial which was not mentioned in this Count of the Complaint.

(III) NEGLIGENCE

38. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference each and every allegation of above paragraphs as through set forth in full herein verbatim.
39. Plaintiff asserts that Defendant, Robin B. Metcalf, has repeatedly acted with negligence in giving her testimony with unsupportive and false information/testimony.
40. Plaintiff believed that Ms. Metcalf was negligent, and her negligent conduct was the cause of Mr. Burda's injuries, and as a result, not being awarded with primary or shared custody of child upon the conclusion of the hearing on that same day, on May 11, 2011.
41. Plaintiff believes, and will prove at the time of trial that he would have prevailed on the custody case if Ms. Metcalf was not negligent in giving her testimony.

42. Plaintiff asserts that Defendant had acted negligently; and it is believed that she premeditated to do so by providing inaccurate testimony to convey a disastrously false impression of Mr. Burda to the Judge, and to family members, friends, neighbors, colleagues and other members of the public audience.
43. Plaintiff asserts that Defendant acted with failure to care, as a reasonable person in the same situation would have taken precautions to prevent the events which ensued.
44. An award of compensatory and punitive damages in a sum according to proof at trial is justified, warranted and appropriate.
45. Additionally, the Plaintiff reserves the right to add supplemental and/or material information, evidence, and/or other facts in subsequent pleadings, prior to or at the hearing/trial which was not mentioned in this Count of the Complaint.

(IV) FRAUD BY CONCEALMENT AND MISREPRESENTATION FOR FINANCIAL GAIN

46. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference each and every allegation of above paragraphs as through set forth in full herein verbatim.
47. Plaintiff asserts that Defendant, Robin B. Metcalf, testified that she was only the "marriage counselor" of the parties in the Spring-Summer of 2010 and had fully and knowingly concealed the fact that she also was Alla's personal and individual counselor, from October 2010 to June 2011, on at least twenty-three (23) occasions, in a span of seven months. (See Exhibit B).
48. Had the Plaintiff, or Plaintiff's attorney, or Judge Carluccio known of this concealment and misrepresentation, Plaintiff believes additional questions, and would undeniably required additional evidence, and would change the course and dynamics of this witness on the stand, as the situation was a conflict-of-interest of the witness towards the parties and Court testimony.
49. Plaintiff believes that the reason that this material and considerably significant facts were concealed of Ms. Metcalf's relationship with Mrs. Alla Burda misrepresented at the hearing on May 11, 2011 was for reasons of avoiding that "conflict of interest" that would probably disqualify Defendant from testimony, or otherwise prohibit admission into trial.
50. Plaintiff believes the Defendant had financial interest with being a witness for Mrs. Burda, as not only did Mrs. Burda pay her expenses, she also provided business for Ms. Metcalf and Ms. Metcalf's firm, The Choice Group through "individual counseling sessions" where the Defendant had benefited considerably and largely.

51. Plaintiff only became aware on August 23, 2011, more than three (3) months after the conclusion of May 11, 2011 hearing that Defendant had a consequently inappropriate and conflicting connection to Alla, through individual counseling sessions, with following dates:
- a. October 8, 2010 – this was concealed from all parties at hearing and kept in secret.
 - b. October 15, 2010 – this was concealed from all parties at hearing and kept in secret.
 - c. October 27, 2010 – this was concealed from all parties at hearing and kept in secret.
 - d. November 3, 2010 – this was concealed from all parties at hearing and kept in secret.
 - e. November 17, 2010 – this was concealed from all parties at hearing and kept in secret.
 - f. December 2, 2010 – this was concealed from all parties at hearing and kept in secret.
 - g. December 9, 2010 – this was concealed from all parties at hearing and kept in secret.
 - h. December 27, 2010 – this was concealed from all parties at hearing and kept in secret.
 - i. January 3, 2011 – this was concealed from all parties at hearing and kept in secret.
 - j. January 12, 2011 – this was concealed from all parties at hearing and kept in secret.
 - k. January 20, 2011 – this was concealed from all parties at hearing and kept in secret.
 - l. January 26, 2011 – this was concealed from all parties at hearing and kept in secret.
 - m. February 1, 2011 – this was concealed from all parties at hearing and kept in secret.
 - n. February 8, 2011 – this was concealed from all parties at hearing and kept in secret.
 - o. February 24, 2011 – this was concealed from all parties at hearing and kept in secret.
 - p. March 1, 2011 – this was concealed from all parties at hearing and kept in secret.
 - q. March 18, 2011 – this was concealed from all parties at hearing and kept in secret.
 - r. March 28, 2011 – this was concealed from all parties at hearing and kept in secret.
 - s. April 12, 2011 – this was concealed from all parties at hearing and kept in secret.
 - t. April 20, 2011 – this was concealed from all parties at hearing and kept in secret.
 - u. April 27, 2011 – this was concealed from all parties at hearing and kept in secret.
 - v. May 4, 2011 – this was concealed from all parties at hearing and kept in secret, even as this was just six (6) days prior to Defendant's appearance was a "witness" at the May 11, 2011 hearing in Montgomery County Courthouse in Pennsylvania.
 - w. June 1, 2011 – this was concealed from all parties at hearing and kept in secret.
52. Plaintiff believes that because Mrs. Alla Burda was "her" one-on-one "patient" who provided a financial cash flow, through insurance and personal contribution to the Defendant, from October 8, 2010, it is possible that Ms. Metcalf needed to "return the favor" by testifying for Mrs. Burda, and not be an "independent" witness she claimed at the hearing, as her role of "couple's marriage counselor."

- 30/12/2011 10:22 AM
53. Further, it is evident Ms. Metcalf had no problems driving at least ten (10) hours and nearly six-hundred miles (600) roundtrip for the hearing to testify on behalf of Alla, as it evident by her own testimony. (pg. 196 of seq. 2010-26928-195, Exhibit A)
 54. Interestingly, when Mr. Burda, unaware of Ms. Metcalf's role and involvement with Alla in her capacity of individual sessions, asked the Defendant to testify for the couple, via e-mail on March 15, 2011, a reply back via e-mail was given by Ms. Metcalf on March 21, 2011, stating that "I would be able to, but I'm not sure it would be helpful to the situation. Robin." (Exhibit C)
 55. Plaintiff asserts that financial gains for the Defendant through insurance, through Alla's and her family's contribution and financial reward were the motivating factors of Defendant's actions and false testimony attacking the Plaintiff.
 56. This was also unethical and professional misconduct had occurred on Defendant's part.
 57. An award of compensatory and punitive damages in a sum according to proof at trial is justified, warranted and appropriate.
 58. Additionally, the Plaintiff reserves the right to add supplemental and/or material information, evidence, and/or other facts in subsequent pleadings, prior to or at the hearing/trial which was not mentioned in this Count of the Complaint.

(V) FRAUD BY DECEPTION

59. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference each and every allegation of above paragraphs as through set forth in full herein verbatim.
60. It is believed by the Plaintiff that the Defendant, Robin B. Metcalf, outwitted the parties, the audience and the Judge by deception in her testimony, and omitted material and significant relationship she had with Plaintiff's estranged wife.
61. It is believed by the Plaintiff that the Defendant had acted less than honest (and intentionally) with stating her relationship not only with the couple, but specifically with Alla Burda alone.
62. Defendant knew if she would tell the truth of the relationship, she would not be credible, and would probably not be afforded any future financial gains and incentives from Alla Burda or the Korenman family, Alla's parents.
63. In testimony under Oath, Defendant was asked by an attorney if she "had appointments with Alla and Steven Burda?" to which Ms. Metcalf replied, "Together, yes." As a follow up, and to

- TJS 2/21/09
Plaintiff's
Brief
- clarify again for the record, the attorney asked, "Were all of your appointments with all three of you?" to which Ms. Metcalf replied, "Yes." (pg. 181-182 of seq. 2010-26928-195, Exhibit A)
64. It is clear that a deceit had occurred, as at least twenty-three (23) of the "sessions" were not with the three parties testified under Oath, but were individual with Alla and Ms. Metcalf only.
 65. It is believed by the Plaintiff that the Defendant had also defrauded and/or misbilled the Plaintiff's insurance company, where Plaintiff was a primary policy member, as in regards to erroneous or otherwise inappropriate billings for various "medical" services, which could have been provided, or not.
 66. Plaintiff believes that this is a serious wrongdoing had occurred on Defendant's part, and could be criminally punishable by law.
 67. An award of compensatory and punitive damages in a sum according to proof at trial is justified, warranted and appropriate.
 68. Additionally, the Plaintiff reserves the right to add supplemental and/or material information, evidence, and/or other facts in subsequent pleadings, prior to or at the hearing/trial which was not mentioned in this Count of the Complaint.

(VI) CONSPIRACY

69. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference each and every allegation of above paragraphs as through set forth in full herein verbatim.
70. Plaintiff believes that Defendant, Robin B. Metcalf, had conspired or otherwise collaborated with Alla Burda, and/or her family members who are affluent in the community they resided in.
71. Plaintiff believes that the motive for the Defendant to commit acts of conspiracy was driven by financial gain, both from the Insurance Company and/or by possible contributions from Alla Burda's extended family.
72. Plaintiff believes that greed drove the Defendant's conduct and actions, with no regard for possible consequences towards the Plaintiff or his children.
73. An award of compensatory and punitive damages in a sum according to proof at trial is justified, warranted and appropriate.
74. Additionally, the Plaintiff reserves the right to add supplemental and/or material information, evidence, and/or other facts in subsequent pleadings, prior to or at the hearing/trial which was not mentioned in this Count of the Complaint.

EB/12/28/11 Metcalf

(VII) FAILURE TO KEEP AND DISCLOSE PROPER RECORDS

75. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference each and every allegation of above paragraphs as through set forth in full herein verbatim.
76. Plaintiff believes that Defendant, Robin B. Metcalf, had failed to keep or disclose proper records acquired, or should have been acquired, during the "marriage counseling" or now known "individual counseling."
77. Plaintiff personally had observed continuous writing or note-taking by Robin B. Metcalf, most of which were in marital discussions praising Mr. Burda's character, his willingness to be a full time-father and a full-time husband to Alla Burda.
78. Plaintiff believes that the Defendant is being dishonest with the Court, when she answered, inter alia, that "My method is, I usually scribble some handwritten notes when I am in session. As soon as the people leave, I just kind of do a little summary and put them on my computer and then destroy the handwritten notes." The question was, "So in a three-hour session, there are seven sentences to refresh your recollection as to what went on on April 24, 2010?"
79. Clearly, to the Plaintiff's belief, a professional who was fully aware of the litigious nature of couple's custody and divorce action would not destroy such notes, unless they would later reveal something the Defendant doesn't wish or want to reveal.
80. Plaintiff believes that this is an unlawful activity had occurred on Defendant's part, and against the Code of Professional Conduct.
81. An award of compensatory and punitive damages in a sum according to proof at trial is justified, warranted and appropriate.
82. Additionally, the Plaintiff reserves the right to add supplemental and/or material information, evidence, and/or other facts in subsequent pleadings, prior to or at the hearing/trial which was not mentioned in this Count of the Complaint.

(VIII) ALTERATION OF MATERIAL RECORDS

83. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference each and every allegation of above paragraphs as through set forth in full herein verbatim.

84. Plaintiff believes that Defendant, Robin B. Metcalf, had altered or otherwise distorted the records or otherwise "fixed" or created the notes for the purpose of the May 11, 2011 hearing, which possibly never existed or were different at the time of the actual "marriage counseling sessions" in Spring-Summer of 2010.
85. Plaintiff believes that Defendant was driven by purpose to "win" the case for Alla Burda, in the protracted hearing in May 2011, and therefore, took upon unethical and unconventional steps and methods, where personal financial gain drove such behavior.
86. Plaintiff avers that, at a later date, he will petition this Honorable Court for full and complete discovery of all schedules, meetings, documents, notes, computer files as well as financial records and payments of Robin B. Metcalf as individual, or through her company and of her assistants.
87. Plaintiff believes that this is an unlawful activity had occurred on Defendant's part, and against the Code of Professional Conduct.
88. An award of compensatory and punitive damages in a sum according to proof at trial is justified, warranted and appropriate.
89. Additionally, the Plaintiff reserves the right to add supplemental and/or material information, evidence, and/or other facts in subsequent pleadings, prior to or at the hearing/trial which was not mentioned in this Count of the Complaint.

(X) FALSE EVIDENCE AND PERJURY UNDER OATH

90. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference each and every allegation of above paragraphs as through set forth in full herein verbatim.
91. Plaintiff believes that Defendant, Robin B. Metcalf, on numerous occasions before and throughout the hearing had presented forged data, which contained doctored information and/or facts, incorrectly stated dates, times and events, and all this while being under Oath in the Court of Common Pleas of Montgomery County, Pennsylvania.
92. Plaintiff believes he has enough evidence to prosecute the Defendant on this Court, with proof that contradicts Defendant's claims, to present in Court at the appropriate time.
93. By the way of limited example, Defendant fabricated and lied in her involvement and capacity with the parties, as was previously addressed in previous Count(s), and also, had supplied with factually inaccurate information about the Burda family and issues relating to 'marriage.'

94. An award of compensatory and punitive damages in a sum according to proof at trial is justified, warranted and appropriate.
95. Additionally, the Plaintiff reserves the right to add supplemental and/or material information, evidence, and/or other facts in subsequent pleadings, prior to or at the hearing/trial which was not mentioned in this Count of the Complaint.

(XI) MISCONDUCT WITH MALICIOUS INTENT

96. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference each and every allegation of above paragraphs as through set forth in full herein verbatim.
97. Plaintiff believes that Defendant, Robin B. Metcalf, had went above and beyond to "satisfy" the requirements of Alla Burda and/or her family members through unethical means of misconduct, with malicious intent.
98. Plaintiff believes that Defendant knew of her actions were malevolent in nature, but as indicated in other Count, Ms. Metcalf was possibly motivated or even blinded by financial gains, or promise of financial gains by Alla Burda or her wealthy family.
99. Plaintiff believes that Defendant had employed various tactics under disguise of "professional" in her field of work, to derail the Judge, and swing the decision in favor of Alla Burda.
100. An award of compensatory and punitive damages in a sum according to proof at trial is justified, warranted and appropriate.

AFTERNOON SESSION

24 MR. LEVIT: Your Honor, I've
25 given Mr. Laird a copy of Robin Metcalf's CV. He

1 (Robin Metcalf - direct)

2 indicated he doesn't object to her qualifications.
3 I am offering her both as expert and fact witness.

4 MR. LAIRD: I am not going to 5 object.

6 THE COURT: Thank you. You
7 are an expert.

8 THE WITNESS: Thanks.

9 MR. LEVIT: The only interesting
10 thing I found out, when she was at the University
11 Nevada, in Las Vegas, she tutored the basketball
12 team.

13 THE COURT: I bet we have a
14 story there. That's for another time.

15 DIRECT EXAMINATION

16 BY MR. LEVIT:

17 Q. By way of background, how did you get 18 involved with Mr. and Mrs. Burda? Skip all of the 19 other stuff.

20 A. Alla called my office and scheduled an 21 appointment.

22 Q. And when was that?

23 A. In April of 2010.

24 Q. You had appointments with Alla and Steven 25 Burda?

(Robin Metcalf - direct)

A. Together, yes.

3 Q. Were all of the appointments with all three
4 of you?

5 A. Yes.

Q. Were they all in person?

7 A. Yes.

Q. What were the dates of the appointments?

9 A. April 24th, May 8th, May 20th, June 19th,
10 July 13th, August 14th, and September 11th.

11 MR. LAIRD: Your Honor, I
12 would simply object. I don't know what Ms. Metcalf
13 is reading from.

THE COURT: Do you want to...

15 MR. LEVIT: I suspect those 16 are her notes.

THE WITNESS: They are.

18 MR. LEVIT: I haven't seen
19 them either.

20 THE WITNESS: I have three
21 copies. I am more than willing to provide them.

22 THE COURT: Why don't you
23 provide them to both counselors?

24 MR. LAIRD: Thank you.

1 (Robin Metcalf - direct)

2 BY MR. LEVIT:

3 Q. You have given to Mr. Laird and me two
4 pages; is that correct?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. The first page is entitled "Burda Progress
7 Notes"?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. It refers to the dates April 24th -- these
10 are all 2010: April 24, May 8th, May 20, June 19,
11 July 13, July 31, August 14, and September 11,
12 correct?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. And what was your role? What was your 15 understanding of your involvement in this matter?

16 A. They came to me for marriage counseling to 17 see if they could reconcile.

18 Q. And did you find Alla cooperative in the 19 process?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Did you find Steven cooperative in the 22 process?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. You have the first note here from April 24,
25 2010. It says three hours. Is that a long

(Robin Metcalfe - direct)

2 session?

3 A. Incredibly long.

4 O. Why were you having long sessions?

5 A. I basically decided to go to the extra mile
6 since they were geographically quite a distance
7 apart from each other and didn't see each other
8 that frequently. And so I just made some extra
9 concessions.

10 Q. As a matter of fact, you met with them on 11 Saturdays?

12 A. Uh-huh. For the most part.

13 Q. Can you tell us what happened at the first
14 meeting? Do it that way.

15 A. Basically I just got a little bit of 16 background. And I learned they had a son that was 17 16 months old at the time. And that after that,
18 Alla had a miscarriage, and that she was pregnant
19 again. And at the time she was 26 weeks pregnant
20 and also had been diagnosed with a condition
21 called placenta previa.

22 We talked a little bit
23 about family background. They shared with me that
24 Steven had had issues with her family;
25 specifically with her father; that he felt her

[Robin Metcalf - direct]

2 father was very controlling and, quote, ran the 3 show.

14 And I felt that just an
15 observation of Steven was, you know, very bright,
16 very articulate, liked to make decisions with his
17 head, a rational thinker.

At the very end of the session they made a commitment to me to go on a date that evening.

21 Q. When was your next meeting?

22 A. May 8th.

23 Q. And how long was that one?

Three and-a-half hours.

6. What do your notes say about that?

(Robin Metcalfe - direct)

2 A. Well, my notes are short. But basically the
3 entire session was around the idea that Steven
4 said he was going to go to D.C. And there were a
5 lot of issues about the move to D.C.

Do you recall what those issues were?

7 A. Just about whether or not he actually had a
8 job there, where he was going to live, that kind
9 of thing.

9. And your next session?

11 A That was on May 20th.

12 Q Okay. What happened then?

13 A. That's when Steven said he was definitely
14 moving to D.C. He said he would be moving there
15 in two weeks.

16 Q. During this period of time, were the two of 17 them talking about reconciliation?

A. They were trying.

19 Q. Okay. Did you find that Steven was sincere 20 in his discussions about reconciliation at that 21 time?

22 A. It appeared so.

23 Q. How about Alla? Was she sincere in her
24 discussion about reconciliation at that time?

25 A I believe so.

(Robin Metcalf - direct)

2 Q. And then your next meeting was June 19th for 3 two hours?

A. Correct.

5 Q. What happened there?

6 A. Well, then we talked about Steven moving to 7 D.C. We talked about setting up some ground rules
8 for family visits and visitation and that kind of 9 thing.

10 Alla, at that point, wasn't
11 comfortable with the idea of living with Steven 12 yet, and wanted to kind of take it in small steps.

13 Q. At that point, that would have been the 14 fourth meeting. Were these meetings -- I don't 15 know the answer -- calm, contentious? What was the 16 dynamic during the meeting?

17 A. Depended. Sometimes it was calm, and 18 sometimes very contentious.

19 Q. When it was contention, would you describe
20 whatever it is that you saw or how the contentions
21 were being handled?

22 A. Steven is a very insistent person. And I
23 guess the word that I would use would be he can
24 badger a person. And many times he would badger
25 Alla regarding moving or living with him or

{Robin Metcalf - direct}

2 visitation or just any and all issues around the
3 marriage and the children.

4 Q. Did you try to deal with that or control it
5 or whatever the appropriate thing for a therapist
6 to do would be?

A. To the best of my ability, yes.

8 Q. Did each of them have a chance to express
9 their opinions and talk at these meetings?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. So now we get to July 13. And that was a
12 two-hour meeting. Can you tell us what happened
13 there?

14 A. Steven came with the lease for the property
15 that he rented in D.C. He demanded that Alla sign
16 the lease. And she just told him she wasn't
17 comfortable doing that because she didn't have a
18 job. She had a brand new baby. She didn't have 19 any money.

20 Q. Was there discussion about their finances?

21 A. A little bit. I don't recall the details.
22 I just remember that she basically had no income
23 and no means or access to any money.

24 Q. And then your next meeting, the bottom of 25 the page, goes over to the top of the next one,

1 (Robin Metcalf - direct)

2 July 31, 2010, for two hours, tell us what happened
3 there.

4 A. At that point, that was when Alla said she
5 felt Steven had been telling her a lot of lies.
6 And she just said she was fed up with his lies.
7 And Steven said to Alla -- she did not sign the 8 lease. He just said it was over. The marriage
9 was over. The relationship was over. And then he
10 said that even if she did move to D.C., there
11 would be no joint account.

12 Q. I am showing you a document that's marked
13 M-1.

14 A. (Witness reading.)

15 Q Have you seen that document before?

16 A. I may have. But I don't -- I don't really
17 recall ever seeing it. They may have brought it
18 to a session, but I didn't actually read it if 19 they did.

20 Q. Do you recall, when Steven was asking her to 21 sign the lease, there was a lease for the place for 22 the two of them?

23 A. Well, that was still up for discussion.
24 That was part of the issue, was whether or not
25 Alla was going to move in immediately.

3/12/2011 maf/foce

1 (Robin Metcalf - direct)

2 MR. LAIRD: I am going to
3 object, Your Honor, because I don't know the 4 relevance. I would say this is cumulative as 5 well. I think we already heard testimony with 6 regard to the signing of the lease, what Steven
7 wanted, what Alla wanted.

8 THE COURT: I don't find it
9 cumulative. I actually find it enlightening. I
10 think it is relevant, and I will overrule the 11 objection.

12 BY MR. LEVIT:

13 Q. At that point in time, in July of 2010, do
14 you have an opinion as to whether Steven or Alla,
15 in effect, was terminating the idea of them
16 reconciling?

17 A. Well, I think on -- it was July 31st when 18 Steven basically said to Alla, it's over if you
19 don't sign the lease. Prior to then, I had really 20 believed that they were both trying to reconcile.

21 Q. You had another session with them on August
22 14, 2010?

23 A. That's correct.

24 Q. Can you tell Her Honor about that one?

25 A. When Alla came in, she was very distressed,

(Robin Metcalf - direct)

2 because Steven had been telling everybody in
3 Philadelphia that he had filed for divorce. And 4 so we talked about that for a little while. And 5 then he also blocked her Facebook account and had
6 blocked her phone or put parental controls on her
7 phone.

18 Then he said he didn't
19 return it because he paid for it.

20 At that point Alla said:
21 Well, is that the issue? Do you want me to pay
22 for the stroller?

25 Q. When she said to him: Do you want me to pay

(Robin Metcalf - direct)

? for the stroller, what did he say?

3 A. I really don't recall. I just know she
4 wrote a check and gave him a check.

5 Q. Was there any discussion about whether
6 Steven had also sued Alla for the $608.97? Do you
7 recall that?

8 A. I don't recall that.

9 Q. Then you had another session on September
10 11, 2010?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. What happened there?

13 A. Steven tried to serve Alla divorce papers in 14 front of me and have me witness the serving of the 15 divorce papers, which I refused to do.

16 And then basically he began
17 to badger Alla. And she just eventually walked
18 out of the session.

19 Q. At that point in time did you see any hope
20 for the Burdas reconciling?

21 B. No, sir.

22 Q. When your note here says at the top of the 23 second page, dealing with the July 31 session, it
24 says, "Alla fed up with Steven's lies," what is 25 that about? Do you recall?

{Robin Metcalf - cross}

2 A. A lot of -- both of them are very proficient
3 technologically. There were a lot of things about
4 Facebook and things Steven was telling people on 5 Facebook.

6 And I believe at one point
7 in time he said he was single on Facebook and a
8 variety of other issues kind of related to 9 communication technologically.

10 MR. LEVIT: That's all I have.
11 Your Honor.

THE COURT: Cross-examination.

13 MR. LAIRD: Sure.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

15 BY MR. LAIRD:

16 | Q Hi, how are you?

13 A Hi.

18 Q. Are these your complete progress notes from 19 your meetings with the Burdas?

30 A Yes, sir.

Q. So in a three-hour session, there are seven sentences to refresh your recollection as to what went on on April 24, 2010?

24 A. That's correct. My method is, I usually 25 scribble some handwritten notes when I am in

1 (Robin Metcalf - cross)

2 session. As soon as the people leave, I just kind
3 of do a little summary and put them on my computer
4 and then destroy the handwritten notes.

5 Q. These would be what you put on the computer?

6 A. Uh-huh.

7 Q. Sounds like law school.

8 And then on May 8th, 2010,
9 you had a three and-a-half hour session. It was 10 just really one sentence? It dealt with Steven 11 moving to D.C. and huge issues around the problem?

12 A. The entire session was about D.C. and moving
13 there.

14 Q. On April 24th, it says Steven had issues
15 with her family and Dad ran the show. Do you
16 recall whether Alla agreed or disagreed with that 17 statement?

18 A. I think she tried to explain her father to 19 Steven.

20 Q. And do you recall if that explanation
21 involved the father wanting the daughter to live
22 with him or stay with him?

23 A. That may have been part of the discussion,
24 but I can't recall exactly.

25 Q. And then Alla said she was trapped in the

(Robin Metcalf - cross)

2 house in King of Prussia all alone; every week she
3 felt trapped. Did she explain to you why she felt
4 trapped?

5 A. She was there alone all day, with a young
6 child, and also had a miscarriage. And she said
7 Steven would work long hours, and then come home
8 and get on the computer.

9 Q. Did she ever say she tried to get out during 10 the day, do Mommy and Me or any type of programs?

11 A. I don't recall.

12 Q. On May 8th, 2010: Steven may move to D.C.,
13 huge issues around potential move. Do you recall
14 what those huge issues were?

15 A. Just whether or not he did or did not have a
16 job, where he was going to live, how much rent
17 they could afford.

18 Q. Do you understand the reason for Steven
19 moving from Pennsylvania to Washington, D.C.?

20 A. I believe that Steven said that he wanted to 21 move to D.C. to try to be closer to Alla and the 22 kids.

Q. And you know that Alla moved from King of Prussia, Pennsylvania, to Richmond, Virginia, on March 30th, 2010?

{Robin Metcalf - crosses}

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. Obviously you're aware that that is some
4 distance between Pennsylvania and Richmond,
5 Virginia?

6 A. I am very aware.

7 | 0. Obviously. You drove it today?

A. My family lives here, and I am from here.
So I am more than aware.

10 Q. Out of curiosity, how long did it take you
11 to get here?

12 A. Five hours.

13 Q. Okay. Do you recall if any of the issues
14 with regards to Steven moving had to do with Steven 15 wanting to be more involved with his family?

A That's what he stated.

17 Q. July 19th, about a month later, you guys
18 discussed rules for a potential move to D.C., how 19 to handle visitation, et cetera. Were there any 20 problems or concerns with regard to Steven visiting
21 Ethan at Alla's parents' house?

22 A. There was a lot of discussion around that.
23 And it was, I believe, decided that he would not be allowed to return home.

At one point, he says, "I can't tell you the particular reason he wouldn't do it."

(Robin Metcalf - cross)

2 visit at their house?

3 A. I think he preferred not to. He didn't
4 really want to interact with Alla.

5 Q. And did Alla support not interacting with 6 her father?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Then there came a time Steven demanded Alla
9 sign a lease and Alla indicated she wasn't
10 comfortable in doing so?

13 A. It was kind of being waived around in front
14 of me, but I didn't really see it.

15 Q. Now, I've got to be honest with you, when 16 you're talking about signing a lease and not
17 signing a lease, and Alla being fed up and Alla
18 talking about a stroller, there seems to be a lot
19 of movement in the room. Were they sitting at a
20 table, standing over each other?

21 A. Chairs. I have in my office a couch and two
22 end tables. Across from that are two chairs and a
23 table in between.

24 And most of the time I
25 believe they both sat in the chairs.

{Robin Metcalfe - Gross}

2 Q. They both had kind of equal positions within 3 the room?

4 A. Absolutely.

5 Q. Were you engaged solely for the purposes of 6 helping to assist in the reconciliation of the 7 marriage?

8 A. That's typically what marriage counseling
9 is. Yes.

10 Q. Thank you.

11 My point is: You weren't
12 involved in assisting the parties with what was in 13 the best interest of the child with regard to 14 visitation?

15 A. Well, marriage counseling is inherently
16 marriage and family counseling. It is. Children
17 always come up in marriage counseling sessions.
18 It just is part of the field of marriage counseling.

part of the field but not the main focus?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. Now, you indicated Steven was a rational
22 thinker?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Would you say Alla was a rational thinker as 25 well?

(Robin Metcalf - cross)

2 A. Yes. I think Alla probably operates a
3 little bit more from an emotional perspective.
4 You know, I am looking at this from something
5 called the Myers-Briggs Type.

6 Q. Sure.

9 A. Absolutely.

10 Q. Would you say that one was weaker than the 11 other?

12 A. Probably, yes.

13 Q. Am I assuming that would be Alla?

14 Page 10 Correct

15 Q. Did Alla discuss why she moved from 16 Pennsylvania to Richmond, Virginia?

17 A. Again, it was about being very, very
18 isolated and feeling trapped, and really feeling
19 like she didn't have a life.

20 Q. Is it fair to say it is your understanding
21 she moved from Pennsylvania to Richmond to be with 22 her family?

23 A And I think to have support.

24 Q. Was there any discussion with regards to 25 domestic violence; any physical abuse?

(Robin Metcalf - cross)

2 A. NO.

3 Q. Were there any concerns that you had with 4 regards to physical abuse?

5 A. I had some concerns.

6 Q. Did Alla at any point in time mention any-
7 thing specific with regards to domestic violence?

8 A. I don't believe so.

9 Q. Did you have any concerns with regards to 10 domestic abuse?

11 A. I think the potential could be there.

12 Q. You say "potential", but you have no proof
13 or evidence that there was ever any type of abuse?

14 A. No.

15 Q. When you say "badger," can you define "badger"
16 for me?

17 A. You know, the word "badger" and the word
18 "harass," they're the kinds of things that you
19 know it when you see it.

When somebody makes a point, and they continue to make the point, and then they make it again and again and again and again, and they get louder and louder and louder,
then you know somebody is being badgered.

25 Q. You've met my wife?

Robin Metcalf - redirect

2 A. No, I haven't.

3 . Q. Were there any concerns with either party
4 not following through?

5 A. There were on occasions times when Steven 6 would not follow through with things he had 7 promised. There were certain times he was 8 supposed to come for visitation and didn't come.

9 Q. Did you understand that he was travelling
10 from Pennsylvania to Richmond, Virginia, the same
11 drive you did today?

12 A. Absolutely.

13 MR. LAIRD: I don't have any
14 further questions, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Any redirect?

16 MR. LEVIT: Yes, Your Honor.

17 | REDIRECT EXAMINATION

18 BY MR. LEVIT:

19 Q. At some point in time before your sessions
20 ended, Steven did move to Washington, correct?

21 A Correct

22 Q. Some of the trips he was making to Virginia
23 were from Washington to Richmond, correct?

34 | Page

25 C And even then sometimes he didn't show up

{Robin Metcalf - recross}

2 | when he was supposed to?

3 A. That's correct.

4. Q. You were also asked if you had a concern
5 about abuse, and you said yes, and the potential
6 for abuse. I would like to follow up. What do you
7 mean by that? What is your concern?

8 A. There are just times that Steven would get 9 what I would classify as out of control, very,
10 very heated. And a lot of times within a
11 relationship, that can escalate.

18 A. Not necessarily. But when a couple is young

20 likely it is to escalate.

21 MR. LAIRD: No further questions

22 MR. LEVIT: Thank you.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

Hello Robin -
This is Steven Burda from PA. As you recall, we (Alla and I) were at several sessions for marriage counseling with you in 2010, from April to September. We now have a short custody/visitation hearing on Wednesday, 3/23/10, at 1:30PM, at the Henrico County Juvenile Domestic Court with Judge Soden, and I wanted to see if you would be able to come and give a brief statement of your professional experience and interaction with us, as a couple, and your own observations during those sessions. Would you be able to do so, without a subpoena? It would be greatly appreciated, and I thank you in advance.
- Steven Burda
